Diamond Measurement System

Truly Magnanimous

A diamond planner is an indispensable tool in today's age of high volume diamond transactions. Unlike the old days, a diamond planner acts as a reliable assistant to the Diamanteer in production, to maximize the yield and minimize the losses. It gives the optimized diamond plan within shortest possible time, thus improving both productivity and profits.

'Magnus' is a world class planner, entirely Made In India

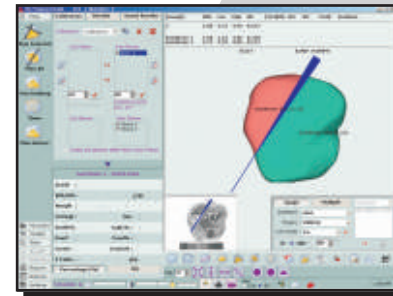

Magnus is a system that works as an all-in one. It not only offers optimized diamond planning, but also offers Laser mapping, Laser Marking, Ray Tracing within a single system. Now the customers will not need to make hefty investment in different systems for availing different functionalities. Magnus, a single system performs all the functions necessary for diamond processing, at planning stage.

Magnus is an answer to the void in the diamond industry for an affordable and at the same time accurate planner, that also gives speedy result, with all the functionality in-built in the system, without the additional costs. Thus providing more value for less money.

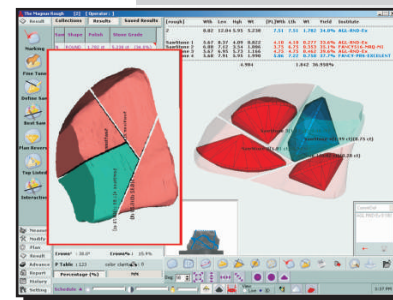

Magnus has been designed keeping in mind the requirements of world Diamanteers.
